COLORED MEN IN COUNCIL.

SPEECH OF FREDERICK DOUGLASS IN FANEUIL HALL, AT THE NEW ENGLAND COLORED CONVENTION.

Mr. President—I regret somewhat this call upon me at this time for a speech. As most of you are aware, I have been busy prosecuting the political campaign during the last three weeks in the State of Maine, speaking often twice a day, traveling in all weather, at all times, and now after having ridden all night, I feel unfit to respond in a becoming manner to the warm and urgent call made upon me at this moment. It seems only a few weeks, or at most a few months ago since I appeared in company with Wm. Lloyd Garison, Francis Jackson, Mr. Quincy and others of the distinguished citizens of this great city, for the purpose of receiving an address signed by Daniel O'Connell, Father Mathew, and sixty thousand Irishmen calling upon the American people to make themselves consistent with the Declara'ion of Independence, and put down slavery forever. That is now, short as the time seems to me, more than thirty years ago. Then the most sanguine did not dare to hope to live to see the day which we now see. I certainly did not dream that it would ever be my privilege to address in Faneuil Hall a convention of colored citizens convened from all parts of New England, for the purpose of canvassing the policy of public men and public measures and to take part in the election of those men and in support of those measures. I have appeared in Faneuil Hall quite often; sometimes as a slave, sometimes as a fugitive slave, always as an advocate of human liberty; but this is the first time that I have been permitted to appear here in the somewhat dignified, I may say almost sublime position, of the American citizen. [Applause.] Look where you will, over this wide wide world of ours, and where is the country of which a man has a right to be so proud of as this same Republic of ours. Where is there a citizenship so desirable, so exalted, endowed with more sublime attributes as the citizenship of the United States? Nowhere. We are the only people in the world, with one or two exceptions, that have devolving upon us the duties of self-government. France has it not, England has it not in any such sense as we have it. Austria, Russia, Prussia—no country on the globe has it to the same extent we have—this right, this duty of electing the men and deciding upon the policy which shall be pursued by the government; and it is only very lately since you and I in a national way had this right. You in Massachusetts had it, but the country as such had it not.

Thanks to the magnanimity of the American people, thanks to the justice of the American people, thanks to the thought, courage, wisdom and patriotism exercised by the colored men themselves in the tremendous struggle through which this country has passed. We now are citizens; we now have the liberty in common with others, and have the right to feel an interest in the welfare, permanence and prosperity and glory of this republic in common with others. I am not a New Englander just now, but for the purpose of liberty I suppose I may call myself such, for a man that goes in for equal rights of man, he is my countryman, my kinsman, my clansman, my brother, everywhere, and should be held so to men in general. We are engaged, fellow-citizens, in a very peculiar canvass-sanguine—and the peculiarities of this campaign is this, that we have two parties and one platform, two cats and one mouse. [Laughter.] The Democrats and the Republicans. Judging from the professions of these two parties, judging from the utterance of the candidates of these two parties, it might be somewhat difficult for us to determine the path of duty. But happily for us we are not left to find the path of duty by such lights as are afforded by mere platform and profession. We have some other guide upon which we may rely in a case like this. There is such a thing as history, and history such as the tendencies and failures of movements. The social and political movements of our time are no exceptions to the rule. Left to a mere profession of the one or the other party, we might as well choose Horace Greely as Ulysses S. Grant, for Horace Greeley has said some good things in his day and generation. I am not here to deal in the viturperation, invective and denunciation of Horace Greeley. Not at all. I admit that it would give me pleasure to vote for Horace Greeley if I knew just which Greeley my vote would elect. [Applause.] But I don't know. But I say we are not left to the professions of men and the platforms of parties to determine what is wise and what is best in this canvass. These parties have their history. We are to judge of them in the light of history and apply to them the rules of common sense. We know very well what the Democratic party has done; we know very well what the Republican party has done. We need not go back far into history to arrive at sound conclusions concerning them. Take the Democratic party for the last thirty years, and what has it done to you and me and the race with which we are indentified. You know as well as I know that the vital and animating spirit of that party from the first until now has been the interest hate, scorn and contempt of the race to which we belong. [Cries of "true."]

We know that forty years ago it allied itself with the late master-class of the South. The four hundred and fifty thousand slaveholders became their voice and their instrument for evil during all that time, and that even during the great sanguinary rebellion which, under the captaincy of General Grant (applause) backed up by the boys in blue—we know that that party, as a party, had no joy in our victory, no grief in our disasters. That party throughout gave aid and comfort to the rebels, and before the close of the rebellion it indicated its regret for the late master-class of the South by selecting for its standard-bearers and representatives of its spirit, the only General with large opportunities to assist in the loyal cause, who accomplished little or nothing for the cause, and who was the most popular general in the army on the rebel army—George B. McClellan. It selected him to be its standard-bearer, put him on the platform, affirming that the war for the Union was accomplished. We met McClellan as we shall meet other people by and by. [Laughter.]

A partial reconsideration took place and slavery was abolished. The Fourteenth Amendment making us citizens was enacted. It became a part of the Constitution. What then. In 1868 they gave us a new platform. What was it, and who was its candidates. You remember well. They selected the man of all men at the North who had most industriously and perseveringly and indefatigably opposed the war for the Union in the nomination of Horatio Seymour, a man who addressed a mob in New York during the rebellion—a mob whose hands were bloody with blood of the innocent black children and of the innocent black men in New York—addressed them as friends, not as murderers. He was selected; that was the tendency of the party, and what it means to do when it gets into power. What is its platform? Why, it was this. The beneficent measures of justice to humanity and equality which have been incorporated into the Constitution of the United States are unconstitutional, revolutionary, and null and void; and that is the mind of the party, and has been until within the last few months. It now professes to have met with a change of heart—to be born again. [Laughter.] It now asks us to receive them into full communion with the political saints. [Laughter.] Well, for my part, I distrust that conversion. I know human nature well enough to know that people who have been thinking and acting in any one direction as the Democratic party has been thinking and acting, cannot easily be changed on an instant. I know there have been instances of instantaneous conversions, and I believe them in some cases. We read of one which was quite instantaneous in the Scriptures. The story of Saul who was converted and the great light that prevailed was visible to his attendents. But I don't know about this conversion of the Democratic party, or that they have seen any such light. I am afraid the light that has dawned upon the Democratic party didn't come from above. [Laughter.] There is a voice and there is light, no doubt, and a good deal of it, but I doubt where it came from.

I want to know when the Democratic party met with its change. Our good friend, Charles Sumner, whose name should only be mentioned with respect for the past, believes that party has been converted. But I want to see the Democratic party on its knees before I shall trust it. When one has met a religious conversion he is ready to come on board the Gospel ship and act in the most humble capacity. But the Democrats want to man the ship, take the helm and seize the cargo. I want to put them on probation for six months, so as to have a little more time to examine the evidences.

The Democratic party of late has become very scriptural and preaches the doctrine of forgiveness. I don't know but that I am prepared to act on the principle inculcated by the parable of the prodigal son.

The prodigal said he had sinned and asked to be taken back as a hired servant. The father received him as a son, but the spirit of the prodigal was that of great humility. He did not ask to get possession of the farm as did the Democratic party. On the other hand the Republican party had been true to the great idea of removing the stain of slavery. It was true under Grant as well as under Lincoln. I know General Grant well. It has been said that I was slighted at not being invited to a certain dinner. Where is the Democratic president who ever invited a colored man to his table? Who ever raised this as a standard of friendship as to whether a colored man was invited or not to dine? I confess I met an insult on the steamer upon the Potomac, and I would have been glad had President Grant resented the insult by inviting me to his table. But I am sure from what I know of General Grant, that he was not capable of any intentional slight to the colorod race. I have General Grant's word that had I been present with the commission in Washington, I should have been invited with them. [Mr. Harris, of Springfield, interrupted the speaker by enquiring if he did not complain to Senator Sumner of his slight by the President. Mr. Douglass replied that he would have been glad to be invited so as to break down prejudice, but he felt that no indignity was intended. But supposing General Grant had some slight prejudice to inviting a colored man to his table, was that a reason why he should be removed or distrusted? Loud responses of "No," followed this question.] We have now in the Constitution the 14th and 15th amendments. We are asked what dager is there to let the Democratic party come in, as they could not do away with these great reforms.

While I do not believe Mr. Greeley would consent to the doing away of these laws, we all know that they could not be enforced, if necessary, without congressional action. There was, years ago, in the Constitution a provision that all men should enjoy liberty everywhere, and yet how often was this position made null and void by State action. Are we so simple as to believe that the Democratic party once in power would pass any suitable man. No, far from it. Our only safety lies in the re-election of U. S. Grant. Our colored brethren are instinctively alarmed at the possibility of the election of Greeley, even as the old slave drivers flock to his standard. In all my Southern tour I have not found a colored man who did not wish success to the Republican party. I have just traversed the hills and valleys of Maine, and I will encourage you by the assurance that the people there are awake, and that the Republicans next Monday will roll up a majority of 20,000 against a majority of 10,000 last year. As it is my intention to address the convention at another time, I will not further trespass upon your time at present.

RULES FOR GETTING OUT OF BED.—Dr. Hall says: It is a great and mischievous mistake for persons, old or young—especially children and feeble or sedentary persons—to bounce out of bed the moment they wake up; all our instincts shrink from it, and fiercely kick against it. Fifteen or twenty minutes spent in gradually waking up, after the eyes are opened, and in turning over and stretching the limbs, do as much good as sound sleep, because these operations set the blood in motion by degrees, tending to equalize the circulation; for, during sleep, the blood tends to stagnation, the heart beats feebly and slow; and to shock the system by bouncing up in an instant and sending the blood in overwhelming quantities to the heart, causing it to assume a gallop, when the instant before it was in a creep, is the greatest absurdity. This instantaneous bouncing out of the bed as soon as the eyes are open will be followed by weariness long before noon.

A precocious boy in a public school out West, who stands high in geography, was recently asked where Africa was located. He promptly answered: "All over the United States."

The Wife a Companion.

Make a companion of her in the fullest acceptation of the term and do not consider it beneath your dignity to suit your conversation to her tastes and intellect. The pricecurrent contains matter vastly more pleasing to you but is very probable that your young wife would prefer to hear you discourse of other matters than the price of cotton or the texture of broadcloth. Study diligently the art of pleasing. Cultivate those thousand and one little nameless attentions wich are so much prized by the female sex and learn to take an interest in whatever ocupies her attention. Do not effect an air of listless, tolerating condescension, when she is pointing out the progress of embroidery, and shun the treason of yawns as she dwells upon the little details of her domestic government. These hints may seem trifling, but the non-observance of them may be attended with the most serious results. If we could anatomize the human mind, how frequently would we discover that the seed from which the upas-tree of enstrangement hath sprung is of a scarcely perceptible minuteness. Be as much at home as possible. A pregnant source of discomfort in the nuptial state is unsettled habits of the husband in this respect. Nothing can be more galling or disheartening to a young wife, after the first few honey-months have passed, than the frequent abscence of her spouse in the evenings. A suspicion is excited in her mind that the home of affection begins to abate, and that she hath lost the power of pleasing, and whenever this feeling occurs, the risk is great that the wish to please will soon cease to exist. There is no rule without an exception, but in general we would hold that a young husband should have few engagements of an evening where his wife did not accompany him. It is most important to cultivate the habit of domestic sociality, and the fireside will never have any charms if they do not exist at the commencement of a union.—Ex.

A London cabdriver describes his personal existence thus: "I got on the box at 8 o'clock this morning. I shall get off at half-past 11 to-night. I have had about half an hour for my meals. By the time I get home it will be nearly 1. Am I then to tumble into bed like a brute! I want to wash myself, and I must have a bit of food however paltry. Then, when I get to bed, I'm almost too tired to sleep. The reins all night seem to be in my hands, and 'Hold hard!' is ringing in my ears. So you see, sir, when I'm not fishing, I'm mending nets. Then I must be up by 6 o'clock to get ready to begin again. It's no use a lot of lords and gents legislature for us if we don't legislate for ourselves. I've been a coachman these forty-two years and I'm used to it; but the long hours kill some of the young 'uns."

A clergyman in Lawrence church, on a recent occasion, discoverd after commencing the service, that he had forgotten his notes. As it was too late to send for them he said to his audience by way of apology, that this morning he should have to depend upon the Lord for what he might say but that in the afternoon he would come better prepared.

Greeley says that the best way to raise early pop-corn is to start it now. Put the corn—any kind will do—in a corn-popper, and suspend it in the sun over a pan of water till the shoots grow out between the wires; then in the spring set it out in pots or beds, and before June the popped corn will be hanging in little paper bags all over the branches.

BARNUM'S gorilla was heard to remark, recently, that he'd be blamed if he'd wear a hair overcoat much longer this hot weather for $10 a week."

LET FUSION ALONE.

Emerson Bentley and the New Orleans Republican keep persistently pegging away at the Democrats who swallowed up the Liberals took the kernel, and gave them the shell; and the Democracy through its organs keeps up stoutly that it has acted fairly, and mildly indicate that the negroes are really the only parties worth conciliating, and they have got as much recognition as they deserve in the selection of Samuel Armstead for Secretary of State on the "Fusion ticket." Obviously the funeral isn't any of ours any longer, the "Liberals" would do a wise thing to let the Democracy go; nothing can be done with it, nor for it, and Republicans can't begin to think of remitting Louisiana to the rule of the men contending for the mastery. Time we believe is also being wasted in trying to persuade people into a new movement to rescue control from the parties represented in the tickets now in the field.

We have no time to speculate any longer. We have just emerged from a long and bitter partizan contest, mutual concessions have been made for mutual benefit and protection. The political unrest is being succeeded by repose, and popular acquiescence in the politic and conservative measures of the two wings of the Republican party is being daily assured. Republicans are tired of dissension and war and uncertainty, they are in the face of great dangers, and they do not propose to encourage their continuance by re-opening just on the eve of election, when all the power, the vigilance and the energy of a united party are absolutely necessary for success, the discussion of candidates for State offices. All good party men must agree with us that it is vastly better to endure the ills we have in the shape even of an objectionable nominee, than to incur the risk of losing the whole State ticket.

As to whether the selection of Mr. Armstead, the fusionist for honors, is the free and full recognition of negro rights and negro claims in the political world of Louisiana, the Republicans of the State can judge, but we regard it as the evidence of Democratic estimate of negro desert and in this light their action is significant.

Our counsel is that the Liberals let the "fusion" ticket go, as they can not without incurring the most stupendous responsibilities cast their lot in that party.

☞The old Democracy is evidently not pleased with the "Fusion ticket. For them there are incongruous elements on it, and they don't see what accessions of strength or popularity they acquire by sacrificing the time honored doctrines of Democracy. It is quite true that there would be infinitely more honor "in the breach than in the observance" of these exclusive ideas, but they don't see it in that light and we wouldn't be much surprised at the sacrifice of the very little leaven of Liberalism which Messrs Sheridan and Armstead represented; but we would be sorry to see it, because it would be an indication of a return to the old lines of their party, and be the signal for a return also to party antagonisms, and resentments, which really the Liberal idea, propositions, and policy set out to annihilate. But the idea is in advance of the bulk of the Democratic party, and they only adopt a theory and a name for the purpose of securing an ascendancy they could not otherwise obtain. But this stooping to conquer wont do.

☞We have just received the first number of The Plaquemines Sentinel published at St. Sophie, under the editorial guidance of W. A. Brainard Esq. The first number presents a creditable appearance and augurs a useful career.

Also the first number of the Straight-out Republican published at Lake Providence, Carroll Parish, and edited by Warren M. Abbott Esq. The salutatory is a whaler, and extends over three columns. Both papers intensely Republican. We welcome our brethren to the field and wish them success.

☞The campaign is progressing in the parishes. Good news comes in from Ascension and Ouachita; Senator Kellogg and his campaign party are doing effective service for the State ticket in the various parishes they are visiting.

OUTLAWRY IN WEBSTER PARISH.

The Shreveport Union Herald, of September 9th, contains the statement of Messrs. Percy Baker, G. B. Abercrombie, L. W. Brasher, and C. A. Boon, relative to the action of a Ku-Klux crowd in Webster parish. The gentlemen named and their friends proposed to hold a Republican meeting to organize a Grant and Wilson club, but some twenty or thirty men, recognized as 1868 K. K. K., attended and defied "any damned Radical" to make any speech. The demonstration was so great, and the numbers overpowering that to avoid bloodshed, no meeting was held. Webster parish being in Louisiana and Louisiana in the Union, some remedial measures might be applied. "LET US HAVE PEACE."

☞In consequence of disputes between State Assistant Registrars, and United States Supervisors of election, a case was taken before United States Commissioner Weller who decided on Thursday, that the United States officers were entitled to all the access and opportunity necessary to enable them to carry out the duties of his office. This enlightenment on the subject has caused Mr. Blanchard to instruct his Assistants to afford all the necessary facilities to the U. S. officials. Let us all proceed decently and friendly gentlemen.

Last Sunday, a large Republican meeting was held in St. James Parish, at which Colonel Lewis, Mr. Nobere Villere, Geo. E. Bovee and others delivered appopriate addresses, after which, the citizens unanimously approved the wisdom, and the patriotism of the Republicans who healed the breaches in the Republican party, and endorsed the Philadelphia nominees and the Electoral and State compromise ticket and pledged their support thereto.

☞There is much work to be be done during the registering period. Indeed so complete is the revision that it amounts to re-registration, and the canvassing committees need to redouble their laborers to get through their work in time and effectively.

☞The work of harmonization goes bravely on. The State and parish committees have fused—many of the clubs have united and and the others are in course of settling their disputes. The traces of the past feud are dying out and it only requires sympathy, honesty and a determined purpose and hard work to ensure success.

☞The monopoly of our columns by matters of interest to our readers excludes much of original matter; we apologise therefore much in the manner of the minister who forgot his sermon, but proposed to read to his congregation "a chapter from Job worth ten of it." Read our chapter and judge.

☞In the mornings and evenings there is beginning to be experienced very agreeable changes in the weather. Yesterday morning was the pleasantest yet. It was cool.

☞Charles O'Conor has positively declined to run for President of the United States.

THE CROPS.

With reference to the staple, the Carroll Republican of Sept. 7, says under the head of COTTON.

"From all quarters of the Parish we hear the report of the damage done by the worms. It is estimated that the crop has been reduced one-third, and still the worms are hard at work: the fields in some places are stripped of all their leaves."

Colored Men Disfranchised.

The new constitution of West Virginia, created by a Democratic convention, and just adopted by the Democratic party gives the colored men of the country fair warning of what they have to expect from a Democratic rule. It contains the very essence of reconstructed Greely Democracy. If they can, as this constitution does, destroy the equality of right by excluding colored men from holding office, thus virtually nullifying the constitution of the United States in West Virginia they can and will in every other Southern State. This is the entertainment to which colored men are invited Greely-secession Democracy. —New National Era.

INTERESTING STATISTICS.

In our issue of Aug. 31, we submitted an exhibit to our readers, showing the respective strength of parties in the various States, and how many were required to constitute a majority. To-day we give our readers a further insight into matters, by copying from the New National Era, the following tables sehowing the highly probable vote of the country in November:

States	Electors
Alabama	10
Arkansas	6
California	6
Connecticut	6
Florida	4
Illinois	21
Indiana	15
Iowa	11
Kansas	5
Maine	7
Massachusetts	13
Michigan	11
Minnesota	5
Mississippi	8
Nebraska	3
New Hampshire	5
New Jersey	9
New York	35
North Carolina	10
Ohio	22
Oregon	3
Pennsylvania	29
Rhode Island	4
South Carolina	7
Vermont	5
West Virginia	5
Wisconsin	10
Total	275

We have given the Greeley Democracy Texas, Louisiana, Georgia, and Missouri, each of which the Republicans of those States claim for Grant and Wilson. But we will let them stand as they are, as the Republican ticket will receive 100 more votes than are necessary for a choice and a majority of 161. The coalitionists can, at most, carry the following States:

States	Electors.
Delaware	3
Georgia	11
Kentucky	12
Louisiana	8
Maryland	8
Missouri	5
Nevada	3
Tennessee	12
Texas	8
Virginia	11
Total	91

If the Greeleyites don't carry Texas, Louisiana and Missouri, take 41 votes from these 91, leaving them but six States and 50 votes all told.

ST. LANDRY.

OPELOUSAS, Aug. 31, 1872.

The Grant and Wilson Club held its regular weekly meeting at its club-room, on Saturday evening, Aug. 31st, 1872. Mr. John Simms called the meeting to order, whereupon Mr. Bernard Martin, Secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were unanimously adopted. Mr. Martin then then called on Mr. D. P. C. Hill to address the meeting. Mr. Hill addressed the club in his usual eloquent style and kept his audience spell-bound for one-half hour with his flow of eloquence and wit. Mr. John Simms then rose and addressed the meeting, endorsing Mr. Hill, and read the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we cannot but deprecate the unwise and unreasonable movement of the Liberal Republicans, (so called,) since its only practical result will be to weaken the progressive party of the nation with whose success or defeat our destinies are so intimately connected.

Resolved, That it is all the more to be deprecated because many who are indentified with that movement are men who at other times were true to the principles of the great party in direct opposition to which they are now combined.

Resolved, That until we have secured a permanent position in the government, defying all efforts to change it, we cannot afford to withdraw our support from the great Republican party which has not only been true to us in the past, but is also the casket of our dearest hopes in the future.

Mr. Mornhinveg then addressed the meeting on the character of Gen. Grant, and compared it with the records of the Renegade Greeley. Mr. Nash, of Washington, addressed the meeting and spoke highly encouraging of the efforts of the Republican party to organize in his section of the parish.

There being no further business before the meeting it adjourned.

☞Many of the Democratic papers find it very hard to support Sheridan and Armstead on the fusion ticket. Whatever course Democrats may pursue prior to election we honestly believe that on the day of voting thousands will draw a pen or pencil across the names of Sheridan and Armstead.—Iberia Progress.

DECISION OF JUDGE SNELL.

Civil Rights in Restaurants.

Not Dependent on the Simple Accident of Color.

FROM THE COLORED CITIZEN.

In the case of Sebastain Aman, who was charged with refusing to entertain in his restaurant W. H. Foote, (colored,) Judge Snell made the following decision:

District of Columbia vs. Aman.—Information for violating section 3 of the law regulating restaurants and other places of entertainment.

It is conceded that the constitutionality of this act is not to be argued here. It is contended that the tendency of this law is to promote intemperance and its enactment unwise. This may be true. Many contended, with great force and earnestness of conviction, that all license laws are extremely detrimental to the best interests of society, and that they should be entirely abandoned and prohibitory laws enacted to take their place. But whether laws are wise or unwise, or whether license or prohibitory enactments are on the whole the best for a state, are not questions for courts, but the legislature. It is certainly not to be hastily or rashly assumed that a legislative body is designed to enact a wicked or immoral statute. If a statute is susceptible of a construction consistent with constitutional law and the recognized standard of morality, it is the duty of the courts to give it such construction. The legislature having passed laws licensing all the classes of persons mentioned in this act—to become public caterers—they are bound to comply with such police regulations as may be attached by the legislature to the enjoyment of the privileges conferred. It is certainly necessary and almost indispensable to good order that all such public caterers should have a well defined and specifically declared right to refuse to wait upon and serve persons visiting their several places who shall not be respectable and well-behaved. With this privilege conferred, there is a corresponding duty imposed, viz: They are not to refuse but required to wait upon and serve all respectable and well behaved persons. Assuming that license laws are not amendable to the charge of such flagrant immorality as to be null and void, which is not contended, the objects of this law are not observed to be corrupt or wicked, but, on the whole, beneficent and useful. Again, it may be remarked that this law has another well defined purpose, viz., to secure to all men, "irrespective of color, condition or previous condition of servitude," a distinct recognition of constitutional rights the possession and enjoyment of which are most happily dependent, in no degree, upon the simple accident of color. Recognizing this important constitutional fact, the legislature has given it vitality and effect by this statute, so that hereafter for all time, so far as law is concerned, and so far as individual rights are concerned, all respectable and well-behaved persons have the right to be served; and public caterers at the same time will possess perfect control over the good order of their establishments, unembarrassed by others tests than those of respectibility and good behavior. A state enacts and maintains license or prohibitory laws through its police power. This power is very great and subject to few limitations. Constitutional rights cannot be transcended, but otherwise its powers are as broad and comprehensible as the necessities of the state. It may not compel its citizens to accept of license occupations. But if conditions which are disagreeable, or which render a business unprofitable are imposed, the citizen, in exercising his inalienable right of choice may withdraw from the occupation, or he may may accept; if the latter, he must be taken to accept his license and business, subject to the conditions imposed by the law. The fact that the refusal to serve was by the defendant's servant, and admitted to have been refused under the defendant's instructions, cannot relieve the defendant from the liability to the penalties of this act. After a careful examination of the testimony, the court is satisfied that the defendant is guilty of a violation of the provisions of this act as charged in the information, and imposes the penalty of the law, which is a fine of $100 and forfeiture of license.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

TO THE

American People

OF THE INTRODUCTION

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE UNITED STATES OF

Dr. G. Colletso's

CELEBATED EUROPEAN RENOWNED ALTERATIVE PILLS.

The success of which in England, France, Germany, Austria and Prussia is unprecidented, having entirely superseded all magnesias, salts, seltzers, oils, etc., of every description, and are universally acknowledged to be the most effective and agreeable Purgative ever yet introduced.

Dr. Colletso has just completed arrangements to supply the people in America with his valuable Pills, and to prevent any imitation of them, manufactures them at his Central Depot, No. 32 Carondelet street, New Orleans, where orders are already pouring in from all parts of the country. Dr. Calletso, to assure the people that his are not gotten up on speculation and never yet tried, would state that he is a graduate member of the Royal College of Surgeons in London, and during his extensive practice for the last twenty-five years in Europe, has abored to produce some medicine which would come within the reach of all, and and which would effectually cure a large number of complaints so general, and for the want of an article of this kind generally goes neglected until the healt is impaired and undermined and the constitution shattered. He, therefore, has tried them effectually in Europe for the last fifteen years, with the most satisfactory results, and their success has been so complete, that it has astonished even himself, and surpassed his most sanguine expectations. One or two boxes save hundreds of dollars in doctors' fees every year in curing the following complaints, which are at the foundation of all diseases:

If your blood is rancid or vitiated, purify it with

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If your skin is diseased and you are covered with pimples, boils, blotches, old sores, scurvy or scrofula,

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS will remove and cure them all.

If you are worse, and have Ulcers, Cancer or Tumors, the effect is magical and the cure complete in taking

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If your Liver is sluggish and you are suffering with jaundice and palpitation of the heart, you can be cured by taking

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If your digestion is bad, and you are constipated, your skin dry and feverish, your head hot and aching, your mouth and lips parched and your eyes red and constipated, or inflamed, you will find immediate relief in taking

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If you have inflammation of the stomach, bowels, womb, kidneys or bladder, with pain in the small of the back, difficulty in stooping without falling, weakness in the knees and dizziness in the head, with dimness of sight, you can remove the inflammation and restore your strength by using

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If you have an enfeebled and debilitated constitution, and are afflicted with lassitude, loss of memory, loss of sleep, loss of appetite, short breath, and are nervous and restless, with bad circulation of the blood, try

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

If you reside in a climate where you are liable to Yellow Fever, Typhoid or Typhus Fever, or Fever and Ague, you can escape these diseases entirely by taking as a preventivo

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS.

In spring and summer, when dysentery and diarrhœao are so prevalent among children and adults, one box of

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS

will check the complaint and cure you at once. Should you be attacked with that dread disease, Cholera, so fatal in its effects, its perfectly harmless if you are provided with a box of

DR. COLLETSO'S ALTERATIVE PILLS!

The following is only one of thousands of thousands of testimonials that could be published, but as it is from four of the most eminent Physicians in London, it is considered substantial proof of their efficacy in Fever and Cholera cases:

12 HYDE PARK GATE,
London, August 15, 1871.

Dr. G. Colletso:

DEAR SIR—We have pleasure in informing you that after several trials of your valuable ALTERATIVE PILLS, both among our outside patients and especially in the Fever and Cholera Hospitals, we have found that in every case where your Pills were given in time, that they invariably checked the disease at once, and especially so in all Cholera cases, not a single life of which has been lost, wherever we have used them. Such is our confidence, after having proved them by five years' experience, we have decided to adopt your ALTERATIVE PILLS, and find inclosed cheque for same, and oblige your most obedient servants,

A. K. WYMAN, Bart, M. D.
JOHN F. MARTIN, M. D.
HENRY C. RODEN, M. D.
C. K. TRACY, M. D.

Dr. Colletso would also state as an evidence of their usefulness in Fever cases that his were used by His Royal Highness the PRINCE OF WHALES during his illness, and the surgeons would not allow any other Purgative Medicine to be used.

ALTERATIVE PILLS

In order that the people may not be deceived in purchasing his Alterative Pills, he would state that they are all manufactured at his CENTRAL DEPOT,
32 Carondelet Street,
New Orleans.

where he prefers to receive all applications that he may send a medicine which he can guarantee and which will prevent impostors from trying to counterfeit; but after having once used these, patients can never be deceived by the substitution of any obnoxious compound.

Price per box $1, or six boxes $5; delivered to any address in the country.

All letters and applications through the post should be addressed to

DR. G. COLLETSO,
Post Office Box 330, New Orleans, La.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

A supplement containing numerous full-sized patterns of useful articles accompanies the paper every fortnight.

Harper's Bazar contains 16 folio pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superfine calendered paper, and is published weekly

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Harper's Bazar contains, besides pictures, patterns, etc., a variety of matter of especial use and interest to the family; articles on health, dress, and housekeeping in all its branches; its editorial matter is specially adapted to the circle it is intended to interest and instruct; and it has, besides, good stories and literary matter of merit. It is not surprising that the journal, with such features, has achieved in a short time an immense success; for something of its kind was desired in thousands of families, and its publishers have filled the demand. The young lady who buys a single number of Harper's Bazar is made a subscriber for life.—New York Evening Post.

The Bazar is excellent. Like all the periodicals which the Harpers publish, it is almost ideally well edited, and the class of readers for whom it is intended—the mothers and daughters in average families—cannot but profit by its good sense and good taste, which, we have no doubt, are to-day making very many homes happier than they may have been before the women began taking lesons in personal and household and social management from this good-natured mentor.—The Nation, N. Y.

Subscriptions.—1872.

Terms:

Harper's Bazar, one year.....$4 00

An extra copy of either the Magazine, Weekly, or Bazar will be supplied gratis for every Club of Five Subscribers at $4 00 each, in one remittance; or, Six Copies for $20 00, without extra copy.

Subscriptions to Harper's Magazine, Weekly and Bazar, to one address for one year, $10 00; or, two of Harper's Periodicals, to one address for one year, $7 00.

☞ Back numbers can be supplied at any time.

Vols. I., II., and III. of Harper's Bazar, for the years 1868, '69, '70, elegantly bound in green morocco cloth, will be sent by express, freight prepaid, for $7 00 each.

The postage on Harper's Bazar is 20 cents a year, which must be paid at the subscriber's post office.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

HARPER'S MAGAZINE

Notices of the Press.

No more delightful travels are printed in the English language than appear perpetually in HARPER'S MAGAZINE. They are read with equal interest and satisfaction by boys of every grade from eighteen to eighty. Its scientific papers, while sufficiently profound to demand the attention of the learned, are yet admirably adapted to the popular understanding, and designed as much to diffuse correct information concerning current scientific discovery as it could be if it was the organ of the "Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge." The great design of HARPER'S is to give correct information and rational amusement to the great masses of the people. There are few intelligent American families in which HARPER'S MAGAZINE would not be an appreciated and highly-welcome guest. There is no monthly Magazine an intelligent reading family can less afford to be without. Many Magazines are accumulated HARPER'S is edited. There is not a Magazine that is printed which shows more intelligent pains exon its articles and mechanical execution. There is not a cheaper Magazine published. There is not, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world.
—New England Homestead.

It is one of the wonders of journalism—the editorial management of HARPER'S.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Model Newspaper of our country. Complete in all the departments of an American Family Paper, HARPER'S WEEKLY has earned for itself a right to its title, "A JOURNAL OF CIVILIZATION."—New York Evening Post,

The best publication of its class in America, and so far ahead of all other journals as not to permit of any comparison between it and any of their number. Its columns contain the finest collections of reading matter that are printed. * * * Its illustrations are numerous and beautiful, being furnished by the chief artists of the country.—Boston Traveler.

Harper's Weekly is the best and most interesting illustrated newspaper. Nor does its value depend on its illustrations alone. Its reading matter is of a high order of literary merit—varied, instructive, entertaining, and unexceptionable. —N. Y. Sun.

Subscriptions—1871.

The Science of Health.

A NEW INDEPENDENT HEALTH MONTHLY.

Devoted to the preservation and restoration of Health on Hygienic principles.

Health is the great want of the age. It is the first need of the individual, the nation, and the race. Health is long life: Disease is premature death. Health develops body, mind and soul; Disease dwarfs and paralizes all. To educate the people in the Science of Life, which includes all that relates to Preserving Health, and to the Art of Treating Disease without Medicine, is the object and purposes of this new Health Journal.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH will aim to disseminate throughout the world a knowledge of Hygenic principles. It will not be the organ of any person, business, or institution, but an earnest teacher of the Laws of Life and Health.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH will be the exponent of all known means by which Health, Strength, Happines, and Long Life may be obtained, by using and regulating those agencies vitally related to Health and the treatment of Disease, including Air, Light, Temperature, Bathing, Diet, Clothing, Exercise, Rest, Sleep, and all normal agents and hygienic materials.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Louisianian.

In the endeavor to establish another Republican journal in New Orleans, the proprietors of the LOUISIANIAN, propose to fill a necessity which has been long, and sometimes painfully—felt to exist. In the transition state of our people, in their struggling efforts to attain that position in the Body Politic, which we conceive to be their due, it is regarded that much information, guidance, encouragement, counsel and reproof have been lost, in consequence of the lack of a medium, through which these deficiencies might be supplied. We shall strive to make the LOUISIANIAN a desideratum in these respects.

POLICY.

As our motto indicates, the LOUISIANIAN shall be "Republican at all times and under all circumstances" We shall advocate the security and enjoyment of broad civil liberty, the absolute equality of all men before the law, and an impartial distribution of honor and patronage to all who merit them.

Desirous of allaying animosities, of obliterating the memory of the bitter past, of promoting harmony and union among all classes and between all interests, we shall advocate the removal of all political disabilities, foster kindness and forbearance, where malignity and resentment reigned, and seek for fairness and justice where wrong and oppression prevailed. Thus united in our aims and objects, we shall conserve our best interests, elevate our noble State, to an enviable position among her sister States, by the development of her illimitable resources, and secure the full benefits of the mighty changes in the history and condition of the people and the Country.

Believing that there can be no true liberty without the supremacy of law, we shall urge a strict and undiscriminating administration of justice.

TAXATION.

We shall support the doctrine of an equitable division of taxation among all classes, a faithful collection of the revenues, economy in the expenditures, conformably with the exigencies of the State or Country and the discharge of every legitimate obligation.

EDUCATION.

We shall sustain the carrying out of the provisions of the act establishing our common school system, and urge as a paramount duty the education of our youth, as vitally connected with their own enlightenment, and the security and stability of a Republican Government.

FINAL.

By a generous, manly, independent, and judicious conduct, we shall strive to rescue our paper, from an ephemeral, and temporary existence, and establish it upon a basis, that if we cannot "command," we shall at all events "deserve" success.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

THE BALANCE WHEEL

OF A

WALTHAM WATCH

BEATS

4 times a second,
240 times a minute,
14,400 times an hour,
345,600 times a day,
292,00 times a week,
10,368,000 times a month,
126,144,000 times a year.

MORE IS EXPECTED OF A WATCH, THAN ANY OTHER KIND OF MACHERY.

It must not only run all day, but all night; not only on weekdays, but on Sundays and Holidays. It must run hanging up or lying down—upside down or right side up. It must keep running when the wearer sits down or stand up, When he walks or rides. In fact, it is expected to do its duty at all times, in every place and in every position.

A Genuine Waltham Watch

will fulfil all these requirements. I wound once a day, it will faithfully tick for you a hundred and twenty-six million times in a year, without even requiring fresh oil all that time.

A Genuine Waltham Watch

CONTAINS

5 Spring, 9 wheels, 51 Screws, and 98 other parts making altogether 136 separate pieces.

ALL GENUINE WALTHAM

Watches have seven Jewels.

THE EXTRA JEWELLED HAVE ELEVEN JEWEL THE FULL JEWELLED HAVE FIFTEEN JEWELS.

Every part of a Waltham Watch is made by machinery, The machinery used in making the movement of a single watch coast over a Hundred Thousand Dollars, yet we sell these Watches, in a solid Silver Hunting Case, for $18. The same watch could not be made by hand and finisheds as perfectly for TEN TIMES AS MUCH.

A Genuine waltham Watch

Is ihterchangeable, like a Springfield rifle that is, any part of one Watch is exactly like the same part in another; and if ten Watches of one grade were taken apart, and the screws, wheels, springs, &c., were mixed together, ten watches could be made by putting these parts together again, without any reference to their former combination. This is a

GREAT ADVANTAGE;

For, if any part of a Waltham Watch is injured we can always replace it at a Trifling Expense.

A GENUINE WALTHAM WATCH

Is made with special reference to

DURABILITY

Other Watches will run for a year or two, an require constant repairs; but

A Waltham Watch

WILL RUN FAITHFULLY

FOR MANY YEARS.

We sell these Watches,

IN SOLID SILVER HUNTING CASES.....$18

IN SOLID GOLD HUNTING CASES, $70

We have prepared an

ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST,

which describes the various grades of Watches in detail, gives the weight and quality of the Cases, and all other information necessary for an intelligent selection.

We wish every one would send for it before ordering a Watch.

Write for it as follows:

Messrs. HOWARD & Co.,
No. 785 Broadway,
New York:

Please send me your Illustrated Price List of Waltham Watches, as per advertisement in THE LOUISIANIAN.

(Sign name and address in full)

WITHOUT EXPENSE,

OR

Refund the Money.

We have sent out over Five Thousand of these Watches upon these conditions, and have only been asked to refund the money in three cases, and not one of these was on account of dissatisfacton with the Watch, but because the parties needed the money more.

WE HAVE NO AGENTS, AND OUR PRICES ARE THE SAME TO ALL. A RESIDENT OF OREGON OR TEXAS CAN BUY A WATCH FROM US AND IT WILL COST HIM NO MORE THAN IF HE LIVED IN NEW YORK. ALL THIS IS EXPLAINED IN THE PRICE LIST.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

WE DO NOT SELL

Waltham Watches in any Imitation, Gilt, Plated, Oride, Filled Cases whatever (these are all other names for Brass or German Silver). The Waltham Watch is worthy of a solid Gold or Silver Case, and we do not propose to sell it in any other.

LET EVERY ONE SEND FOR A PRICE LIST. ADDRESS IN FULL,
